AMONG FRIENDS with Robert

I hope you are marking your calendar for Saturday, April 7, as Crosstown will be blessed in having Wayne and Tami Roberts from Oklahoma City come to lead a free marriage seminar called His Shoes. Her Shoes. The seminar will be from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Free childcare and lunch will be provided. Registration is requested. Let's make sure to reach out and invite others to this free seminar by sharing this event and info on Facebook, through our website, and by handing out flyers that on the table in the foyer. You can also sign up to help with registration, childcare, kitchen help, and to pass out flyers in our community. Sign up sheets are on the foyer table.

Wives and husbands both have big shoes to fill. To really understand what Christ intended in our marriages, both spouses need to walk in the other's shoes. Spend a day exploring ways to make your marriage stronger by being both a better Christian and a better spouse. This one-day seminar will include Biblical teaching for husbands and wives as well as breakout sessions* to discuss the God-given design for marriage. Participants will understand the importance of their spouse as well as their own role.

Seminar topics include:

- Big Shoes to Fill – Being a husband
- These Shoes Are Too Tight – Being a wife
- Glass Slippers – Finding God's "Happily Ever After"
- Tongue Tied - Communication in marriage
- Climbing in High Heels – Overcoming difficulties
- Pumps and Penny Loafers – The fashion of passion
- Whose Bed Are Your Shoes Under? – Faithfulness in marriage
- It's All About Their Soles (Souls) – Getting to Heaven, together

* Tami only teaches in the breakout sessions, and only to the women.

Wayne and Tami Roberts have been married since 1981. They have raised five children and are enjoying eight grandchildren. Their unique, genuine, and interpersonal style has made them sought after teachers.

-- Your friend,
Robert
