Reconciliation

2 Corinthians 5:18-21

Reconciliation: to change into friendship

A black and white photograph of a cross on a hillside. The cross is made of dark wood and stands on a tall, thin post. The background shows a cloudy sky and a hillside. A black rectangular sign with yellow text is overlaid on the image, tilted at an angle. The text on the sign reads: "We need to be reconciled to God (5:18; cf. Rom. 5:10a)".

We need to be reconciled to God (5:18; cf. Rom. 5:10a)

God is here

You are here

The agent of reconciliation is Jesus (5:19a, 21; cf. Rom. 5:10b-11)

A black and white photograph of a cross on a hill. The cross is silhouetted against a bright, cloudy sky. A black rectangular sign with yellow text is overlaid on the image, tilted diagonally. The text on the sign reads: "The means of reconciliation is the word (5:19b-20)".

The means of reconciliation is the word (5:19b-20)

A black and white photograph of a cross on a hill. In the foreground, a sign is attached to the cross's post. The sign is black with a white border and contains the text "Are you reconciled to God?" in a white, serif font. The background shows a cross on a hill under a cloudy sky.

Are you reconciled to God?
