

A person is sitting on a bench or bed, looking out of a window. Their hands are clasped together in their lap. Outside the window, it is raining heavily, creating a blurred, streaky effect. The scene is dimly lit, suggesting an evening or overcast day.

The Four Greatest Words You Can Ever Hear

(Mark 2:1-10)

A person is sitting on a wooden bench or ledge, looking out of a window. The window shows a view of rain falling on a dark surface, possibly a street or a body of water. The person is wearing a dark, patterned top and dark pants. Their hands are clasped together in their lap. The overall mood is contemplative and somber.

Reminds us all what our greatest problem is:
SIN

A person is sitting on the floor next to a window, looking out at a rainy scene. The person is wearing a dark, patterned top and dark shorts. Their hands are clasped together, resting on their knees. The window is large and shows a view of trees and rain. The overall mood is contemplative and quiet.

The Four Greatest Words You Can Ever Hear

A person with long dark hair, wearing a dark patterned top and dark shorts, is sitting on the floor. They are looking down with their hands clasped together in front of them, appearing to be in a state of prayer or distress. They are positioned next to a large window with a dark frame. The background is slightly blurred, showing a wooden cabinet or desk. The overall mood is somber and reflective.

“Your sins are FORGIVEN”