

The Church as a FAMILY

(1 Timothy 3:15)

- The background of the slide features a series of grey paper cutouts of human figures holding hands in a line, receding into the distance. The figures are simple in design, with rectangular bodies and triangular heads. The overall tone is monochromatic and symbolic of community and unity.
- The church is the “household” of God (1 Tim. 3:15; cf. Eph. 2:19; Gal. 6:10)
 - What does it mean to be a family?

- The background of the slide features a series of grey paper cutouts of human figures holding hands, arranged in a line. The figures are simple in design, with rectangular bodies and triangular heads. The overall tone is dark, with the figures appearing as light grey against a black background.
- We are to be CONSCIOUS of one another (1 Cor. 11:29, 33-34)
 - We are to be CONNECTED to one another (Rom. 12:4-5)
