

A close-up photograph of a claw hammer with a bright yellow handle and a metal head, lying on a rustic wooden plank. To the right of the hammer's head, several silver-colored nails are scattered. The text "Relationship REPAIR" is overlaid in a white, serif font with a red glow effect. The word "Relationship" is on the top line, and "REPAIR" is on the bottom line, both in all caps.

Relationship REPAIR

(Mending the Messes)

A close-up photograph of a wooden workbench. A hammer with a yellow handle and a metal head lies diagonally across the frame. To the right of the hammer, several metal nails are scattered. The background is a warm-toned wooden surface with visible grain.

- It is NOT messing up that destroys the harmony and unity in our relationships; it is failing to handle the missteps

- How we can we help repair broken relationships?

A close-up photograph of a wooden workbench. A hammer with a wooden handle and a metal head is positioned diagonally across the frame. Several nails are scattered on the right side of the workbench. The wood grain is clearly visible, and the lighting is warm and focused on the tools.

1. Relationships are repaired through an honest and heartfelt apology

- Luke 15:17-20

- Matthew 5:23-24

2. Relationships are repaired through patience and tolerance

- Ephesians 4:2

Clara Barton

Robert E. Lee

A close-up photograph of a wooden workbench. A hammer with a wooden handle and a metal head is lying diagonally across the frame. Several metal nails are scattered on the right side of the workbench. The wood grain is clearly visible, and the lighting is warm and focused on the tools.

2. Relationships are repaired through patience and tolerance

- Ephesians 4:2
- 1 Corinthians 13:5

A hammer with a yellow handle and a claw head, and several nails, resting on a wooden surface. The hammer is positioned diagonally across the frame, with its head pointing towards the bottom left. The nails are scattered to the right of the hammer head. The background is a wooden surface with visible grain and knots.

Relationship REPAIR

(Mending the Messes)