

A cinematic still from a religious production depicting Jesus healing a man with a withered arm. Jesus, with long brown hair and a beard, wearing a light-colored robe, is leaning over the man. The man is lying on a bed of straw, his right arm withered and bound to his side with thick, dark ropes. Several other men in traditional robes stand around them, observing the miracle. The background is a dark, stone-walled interior. The title text is overlaid in the center in a large, white, serif font with a yellow glow.

The Authority to Forgive

(Matthew 9:1-8)

Reminds us all what our greatest problem is:
SIN

The four greatest words
you can ever hear

“Your sins are forgiven”

A cinematic still from a film depicting Jesus healing a man with a withered arm. Jesus, with long brown hair and a beard, wearing a light-colored robe, is leaning over the man who is lying on a bed of straw and dry branches. The man's right arm is withered. Three other men stand around them, watching. The man on the far left has a long green robe. The man on the far right is older, with a white beard, wearing a yellow and orange patterned robe and a white head covering. The background is a dark, stone wall. The scene is lit with warm, golden light, suggesting an indoor setting with a fire or lamp.

The Authority to Forgive

(Matthew 9:1-8)