AMONG FRIENDS with Robert

Jesus says in John 17:20-21, “My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me.” We were created for unity with fellow believers. It's in the pursuit of unity that the bonds of selfishness and pride are often broken. It's in the surrender of opinion and selfish ambition that we find the abundant life that comes through sacrificial living. And most importantly, it's in unity that Jesus is most glorified.

Unity between two humans is only truly possible by the working of the Holy Spirit. Apart from God dwelling and transforming man, we will never be able to live sacrificially with any level of consistency. It's for that reason that Jesus is so glorified through our unity. And it's for that reason that pursuing unity between believers is of the utmost importance.

What are we declaring to the world when we bicker, slander, and give up on unity with fellow believers? Why would the lost want anything to do with a group of dramatic, hateful, judgmental, and selfish Christians? Christ has charged us with the command to be His hands and feet. He's commanded us to make disciples. And our ministry is nothing without love. When we pursue our own pride and gain over unity, we are directly disobeying the commandments of Scripture. When we allow strife and pride to place barriers between us, we hurt the cause of Christ to which we are all called.

Scripture is clear in its command to pursue unity. Unity isn't a suggestion that we don't have to adhere to because people can be difficult. It's a command straight from God, and it's of the highest importance. Ephesians 4:1-3 says, As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.”

We are called to be a carrier of peace. The Holy Spirit dwelling within us longs to make us a person who pursues restoration, comfort, agreement, and peace with fellow Christians. He longs to fill us with love, honor, patience, and respect for the fellow believers He has placed in our midst. When we feel dissension arise within us, we choose to serve your brother or sister out of reverence for God.

Friends, it is our desire to see our Crosstown church family grow and develop greater unity among all the groups within our congregation. We have new members, long term members, members with varying religious backgrounds, members with no faith background, White, Black, Hispanic, teens, single parents, traditional families, blended families, singles, men, women and multiple generations. We believe that being a church that embraces all aspects of who we are will greater enhance our ability to reflect God and declare to the world the wonderful transformation that comes only through salvation in Him.

“May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had, so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.. (Romans 15:5-6)

--Your friend,
Robert
